(2) The Regulations may provide for the inspection of any records kept thereunder and of any apparatus used for the purpose thereof and for the taking of copies and extracts from any such records and may confer rights of entry for the purpose of exercising any of the powers aforesaid, and the provisions of Third Schedule relating to entry of premises shall apply to any such right of entry.

48. The Authority or any water purveyor may enter into agreements with the owners and occupiers of any land, or with a local authority, with respect to the execution and maintenance by any party to the agreement of such works as the Authority or the water purveyors consider necessary for the purpose of draining that land, or for more effectually collecting, conveying, or preserving the purity of, water which the Authority or the water purveyor is for the time being authorised to take.

may, without prejudice to their right to take proceedings for a fine in respect of such contravention, cause any water fittings belonging to or used by that person which are not in accordance with the requirements of the Bye-laws to be altered, repaired or replaced, and may recover the expenses reasonably incurred by them in so doing from the person in default summarily as a civil debt.

Bye-laws for preventing pollution of water of Authority, etc.

51. - (b) prohibit or regulate the doing within that area of any act specified in the Bye-laws.

Bye-laws made under this section may contain different provisions for different parts of the area defined by the Bye-laws.

(2) Where an area has been defined by Bye-laws under this section, the Authority or water purveyors may by notice require either the owner or the occupier of any premises within that area to execute and keep in good repair such works as they consider necessary for preventing pollution of their water and, if he fails to comply with any such requirement, he is liable on summary conviction to the same penalties as if he had committed an act prohibited by the Bye-laws.

(3) An owner or occupier who considers that a requirement made on him under subsection (2) is unreasonable, may, within fourteen days after service on him of the requirement, appeal to the Minister and the Minister may determine the appeal himself or, if he thinks fit, may refer it for determination by an arbitrator to be appointed, in default of agreement, by the Minister, and the Minister or arbitrator may, if he decides that the requirement is unreasonable, modify or disallow the requirement.

the Authority or water purveyor may, without prejudice to their rights to take proceedings for a fine in respect of such failure, execute and keep in good repair the works specified in the requirement as originally made or, as the case may be, as modified on appeal, and may recover the expenses reasonably incurred by them in so doing from the person in default summarily as a civil debt.

52. (1) The Minister shall be the confirming authority as respects Bye-laws made under sections 50 and 51 and the provisions of the First Schedule shall apply to the making and confirming of such Bye-laws.

(7) Subject as hereinafter provided and to the provisions of subsection (8) where a person fails to pay within seven days after a demand therefor any instalment of a water rate or sewerage rate payable by him in respect of any premises, the Authority may cut off the supply of water to the premises and recover the expenses reasonably incurred by it in so doing in the same manner as the instalment due, save that if, before the expiration of the said seven days, notice in writing is given to it that there is a dispute as to the amount due in respect of the water rate or sewerage rate, or as to the liability to pay the rate, the Authority shall not cut off the supply of water until the dispute has, on the application of either party, been settled by a Court of summary jurisdiction, but only if the occupier tenders the amount due in respect of the water rate or sewerage rate, as the case may be, without prejudice to the dispute.

(8) Where, at the date when an instalment of a water rate or sewerage rate in respect of any premises becomes due, the owner of the premises is liable by or under any written law, or by agreement with the authority, to pay the water rates for the supply of water to those premises or to pay the sewerage rates and is not himself the occupier thereof, the Authority shall not cut off the supply of water to the premises for a failure by him to pay any such instalment, but the instalment, without prejudice to the right of the Authority to enforce payment thereof by him, may be recovered by it either from the owner for the time being, or, subject as hereinafter provided, from the occupier for the time being, of the premises, in the manner in which water rates and sewerage rates are recoverable.

(9) Where the occupier of such premises is not the owner thereof—

- (b) no greater sum shall be recoverable at any one time from the occupier than the amount of rent, which is owing by him, or which has accrued since such notice as aforesaid was given to him; and
- (c) if the occupier, as between himself and the owner of the premises, is not liable to pay the water rate or sewerage rate he shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him any sum paid by him in compliance with the notice, or so recovered from him.

(10) In this section the expression “water rate” includes any additional charge payable to the Authority in respect of a supply of water for domestic purposes.

Ch. 54:41.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in subparagraphs (1) and (2), the Minister may require any person who has made an objection to state in writing the grounds thereof, and may confirm the Order without granting a hearing or causing a public local inquiry to be held if the Minister is satisfied that the objection relates exclusively to matters which can be dealt with by the tribunal by whom the compensation is to be assessed.

(4) An Order as confirmed by the Minister shall not, unless all persons interested consent, authorise the Authority to purchase compulsorily any land which the Order would not have authorised it so to purchase if it had been confirmed without modification.

- (a) may, by interim order, suspend the operation of the Order, either generally or in so far as it affects any property of the applicant until the final determination of the proceedings; and

8. Subject to paragraph 7, the Order shall not be questioned by prohibition or certiorari or in any legal proceedings whatsoever, either before or after the Order is confirmed, and shall become operative at the date on which notice of confirmation of the Order is published in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule.

(2) If for thirty days after the service of the notice to treat any party fails to state the particulars of his claim in respect of any such land or to treat with the Authority in respect thereof, or if any party and the Authority do not agree as to the amount of compensation to be paid by the Authority for the interest in the lands belonging to such party or which he is enabled to sell, or for any damage that may be sustained by him by reason of the execution of the work, the amount of such compensation may be settled in the manner provided for by the Land Acquisition Act.

Ch. 58:01.

- (b) refuses to convey or release such lands as directed by the Authority, or cannot after diligent enquiry be found, the Authority may deposit the purchase-money or compensation payable in respect of such lands, or any interest therein, in the Central Bank in the name and with the privity of the Registrar of the Supreme Court to be placed to his account there to the credit of the parties interested in such lands, describing them so far as the Authority is able, but subject to the control and disposition of the High Court.

11. (1) Upon the deposit of the purchase-money or compensation payable in respect of such land or any interest therein under paragraph 10, such land or the interest therein shall vest in the Authority without further conveyance for the purposes specified in the Order; and in the case of land that is held under Part III of the Real Property Act and upon production of proof to the satisfaction of the Registrar General that the requirements of paragraph 10 and the other provisions of this Schedule have been complied with, the Registrar General shall do all things necessary to effect the transfer of such land as if a memorandum of transfer or other instrument purporting to transfer the land under that Act had been executed.

Ch. 56:02.

(2) Every duplicate grant or certificate of title in respect of land that is to be transferred under subparagraph (1) shall on demand by the Registrar General therefor be surrendered to him by the person in possession thereof, to be dealt with under the provisions of the Real Property Act as if upon a transfer of land under that Act.

(3) In the case of land that is not held under the Real Property Act, the transfer of the land under subparagraph (1) shall be entered in the Protocol of Deeds upon production of proof to the satisfaction of the Registrar General that the requirements of paragraph 10 and the other provisions of this Schedule have been complied with.

(4) Any person who fails to comply with the requirements of subparagraph (2) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifteen hundred dollars, and in the case of a continuing offence to a further fine of three hundred dollars for each day during which the offence continues after conviction therefor.

(5) Except as may be otherwise prescribed no fee is payable to the Registrar General for things done in his office under this paragraph.

12. Notwithstanding anything in this Schedule to the contrary, the Authority after serving notice to treat and after serving on the owner, lessee or occupier of the land not less than fourteen days' notice, may enter on and take possession of the land or such part thereof as is specified in the notice, without previous consent, but subject to the payment of the like compensation for the land for which possession is taken and interest on the compensation as would have been payable if the provisions of this Schedule had been complied with.

13. In every case not within the contemplation of paragraph 11, the completion of the purchase shall be governed by the terms of the contract in accordance with the ordinary law relating to sale and purchase of land; and the costs of conveyance, including the cost of deducing evidence of and verifying title and of furnishing abstracts and all other reasonable expenses incidental to the investigation of title shall be borne by the Authority.

14. Nothing in this Schedule shall be deemed to prevent the acquisition of land by private treaty for the purposes of this Act either before the making or confirmation of the Order or before the service of notice to treat.

PART III

15. Anything required or authorised by this Schedule to be prescribed shall be prescribed by Regulations made by the Minister.

16. (1) Where the person to be served has furnished an address for service, his proper address for the purposes aforesaid shall be the address furnished.

(2) If the Minister having jurisdiction to confirm or make the Order in connection with which the document is to be served is satisfied that reasonable inquiry has been made and that it is not practicable to ascertain the name or addresses of an owner, lessee or occupier of land on whom any such document as aforesaid is to be served, the document may be served by addressing it to him by the description of "owner", "lessee" or "occupier" of the land (describing it) to which it relates, and by delivering it to some person on the premises or, if there is no person on the premises to whom it may be delivered, by affixing it or a copy of it to some conspicuous part of the premises.

(2) Nothing in this section shall require them to deliver water at a height greater than that to which it will flow by gravitation through their mains from the service reservoir or tank from which the supply in question is taken and they may in their discretion determine the service reservoir or tank from which any supply is to be taken.

PART VI

Laying and Maintenance of Supply Pipes and Communication Pipes

(2) If, in the case of a house or other building already supplied with water but not having a separate service pipe, the undertakers give notice to the owner of the house or building requiring the provision of such a pipe, the owner shall within three months lay so much of the required pipe as will constitute a supply pipe and is not required to be laid in a highway, and the undertakers shall, with all reasonable despatch after he has done so, lay so much of the required pipe as will constitute a communication pipe or a supply pipe to be laid in a highway and make all necessary connections.

(3) If an owner upon whom a notice has been served under subparagraph (2) fails to comply therewith, the undertakers may themselves execute the work which he was required to execute.

(4) The expenses reasonably incurred by the undertakers in executing the work which they are required by subparagraph (2) to execute, or which they are empowered by subparagraph (3) to execute, shall be repaid to them by the owner of the house or building and may be recovered by them from him summarily as a civil debt, but without prejudice to the rights and obligations, as between themselves, of the owner and the occupier of the house or building.

(5) For the purposes of the foregoing provision of this paragraph two or more buildings in the same occupation and forming part of the same hereditament for rating purposes shall be treated as a single building.

(7) Without prejudice to the provisions of subparagraph (6) where, on the coming into force of this paragraph, two or more houses were being supplied with water by single service pipe, the undertakers shall not require the provision of separate service pipes for those houses until either—

- (a) the existing supply pipe becomes so defective as to require renewal, or is no longer sufficient to meet the requirements of the houses; or
- (b) an instalment of the water rate in respect of any of the houses remains unpaid after the end of the period for which it is due; or
- (c) the houses are, by structural alterations to one or more of them, converted into a larger number of houses.

14. (1) All communication pipes, whether laid before or after the coming into force of this paragraph, shall vest in the undertakers and the undertakers shall at their own expense carry out any necessary works of maintenance, repair or renewal of such pipes and any work on their mains incidental thereto.

(2) The undertakers shall also carry out any such necessary works as aforesaid in the case of so much of any supply pipe as is laid in a highway, and may recover the expenses reasonably incurred by them in so doing summarily as a civil debt from the owner of the premises supplied by the pipe, but without prejudice to the rights and obligations, as between themselves, of the owner and the occupier of the premises.

PART VII

Stopcocks

Provisions as to position, etc., of stopcocks.

15. (1) On every service pipe laid after the coming into force of this paragraph the undertakers shall, and on every service pipe laid before that date the undertakers may, fit a stopcock enclosed in a covered box, or pit, of such size as may be reasonably necessary.

(2) Every stopcock fitted on a service pipe after the coming into force of this paragraph shall be placed in such position as the undertakers consider most convenient, but—

- (a) a stopcock in private premises shall be placed as near as is reasonably practicable to the street from which the service pipe enters those premises; and
- (b) a stopcock in a street shall, after consultation with the highway authority concerned, be placed as near to the boundary thereof as is reasonably practicable.

PART VIII

Water Rates and Charges

16. (1) Where undertakers supply water to any premises for domestic purposes or where the Authority erects, maintains, and keeps supplied with water any public standpipe, they or it, as the case may be, may charge in respect thereof a water rate, which shall be calculated at a rate not exceeding the prescribed rate—

Water Rates.
[32 of 1969].

- (a) in the case of a house or of any premises not used solely for business, trade or manufacturing purposes or for the exercise of functions by any public authority, on the annual value thereof; and
- (b) in the case of any other premises, on such proportion of the annual value thereof as may be prescribed.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the undertakers may in any case make in respect of the supply such minimum charge as may be prescribed or, if no charge is prescribed, three dollars and sixty cents a year.

(3) For the purposes of this Part, where water supplied to a house within the curtilage of a factory is used solely for the domestic purposes of occupants of the house, the house shall be deemed separate premises not forming part of the factory.

(4) For the purposes of this Part, the annual value of any premises shall be taken to be that value as appearing in the assessment roll in force on the first day of the period of twelve months covered by the rate, save that, if that value does not appear therein, or if the water rate is chargeable on a part only of any hereditament entered therein, the annual value of the premises supplied shall be taken to be such sum, or as the case may be, such fairly apportioned part of the annual value of the whole hereditament, as, in default of agreement, may be determined by the Appeal Board.

(5) Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (2), where there is communication, otherwise than by a highway, between buildings or parts of buildings in the occupation of the same person, those building or parts of buildings shall, if the undertakers so decide, be treated, for the purpose of charging water rates, as one building having an annual value equal to the aggregate of their annual values. A person aggrieved by a decision of the undertakers under this subparagraph may appeal to the Appeal Board.

Power to make agreed charges for domestic supply.

17. (1) The undertakers, in lieu of charging a water rate, may agree with any person requiring a supply of water for domestic purposes to furnish the supply, whether by meter or otherwise, on such terms and conditions as may be agreed.

(2) Charges payable under this paragraph (including charges for any meter supplied by the undertakers) shall be recoverable in the manner in which water rates are recoverable.

Additional charges where water supplied for domestic purposes and paid for by water rate is used for other purposes.

18. (1) Where water which the undertakers supply for domestic purposes, and in respect of which they charge a water rate—

- (a) is used for watering a garden; or
- (b) is used for horses, washing vehicles, or other purposes in stables, garages or other premises where horses or vehicles are kept, the undertakers may in either case, if a hose-pipe or other similar apparatus is used, charge in respect of that use of the water an additional annual sum not exceeding the prescribed sum.

(2) Where in either of such cases the water used is drawn from a tap outside a house, but no hose-pipe or similar apparatus is used, the undertakers may charge an additional annual sum not exceeding one-half of the maximum sum chargeable under subparagraph (1).

(3) Sums charged under the provisions of this paragraph shall be paid in advance either quarterly or half-yearly as the undertakers may determine, and shall be recoverable in the manner in which water rates are recoverable.

Metered supplies.

19. (1) The undertakers may—

- (a) require that any supply connected to a communication pipe be provided by them with a meter;
- (b) prescribe the charges to be paid by the owner or occupier of the metered premises for or in connection with the installation, use, testing and removal of any meter or class of meter; and
- (c) prescribe the charges which shall be payable by the owner or occupier of the premises for water supplied through the meter.

(2) Any such charge for water supplied through meters may be made to apply to premises generally or may be made to apply to any specified class or description of premises or to any specified class or description of supply.

(3) Charges leviable under this paragraph shall be assessed and payable in such manner and shall be due at such times and in such circumstances as the undertakers may prescribe.

20. Where two or more houses or other buildings in the occupation of different persons are supplied with water by a common pipe, the owner or occupier of each of them shall be liable to pay the same water rate for the supply as he would have been liable to pay if it had been supplied with water by a separate pipe.

Liability to water rates where building supplied by common pipe.

21. (1) Where a house or other building supplied with water by the undertakers has an annual value not exceeding five hundred dollars, the owner instead of the occupier shall, if the undertaker so resolve, pay the rate for the supply of water.

Water rates on certain houses may be demanded from the owners. [7 of 1978].

(2) An owner of premises to which a resolution of undertakers under this paragraph applies shall, if he pays the amount due by him in respect of a water rate before the expiration of one-half of the period in respect of which the rate or instalment of the rate is payable, or before such later date as may be specified by the undertakers, be entitled to an allowance calculated at the rate of five per cent.

22. (1) Undertakers who charge water rates under the Act or an Order shall make such a rate by fixing, in respect of a period of twelve months commencing on the first day of January, the rate or, as the case may be, the scale of rates by reference to which amounts due under the rate are to be calculated and, subject to the provisions of this paragraph, any such rate shall be payable in advance by equal quarterly instalments or, if the undertakers so resolve, by equal half-yearly instalments.

Making and dates for payment of sewerage rates.

(2) A water rate under this paragraph, or in force under any written law relating to water supply immediately before the coming into operation of this paragraph, shall unless a new rate is made, continue to operate in respect of each successive period of twelve months.

(3) If, and so long as, the water rates are payable in advance by half-yearly instalments—

- (a) no proceedings shall be commenced for the recovery of any such instalment until the expiration of two months from the first day of the half-year in respect of which it has been demanded; and
- (b) subject to subparagraph (4), if the person who is, or who, but for the provisions of paragraph 21, would be, liable to pay the water rate payable in respect of any premises, is in occupation of those premises during a portion only of a half-year, he, or as the case may be, the owner of the premises, shall be liable to pay the whole of the instalment due in respect of that half-year.

(4) If the person who is, or who, but for the provisions of paragraph 21, would be liable, to pay the water rates as aforesaid, notifies the Authority of his or the occupiers' intention respectively to quit the premises before the premises becomes vacant, he or as the case may be the owner of the premises shall be liable to pay so much only of the half-yearly instalment as bears to the whole instalment the same proportion as the number of days within the half-year during which the first-mentioned person is in occupation bears to the number of days in the half-year, and, if any greater proportion of the instalment has been paid, the person by whom it was paid shall be entitled to recover the excess from the undertakers, except in so far as he has previously recovered it from an incoming occupier

(5) Nothing in subparagraph (4) shall exempt the owner of any premises from liability in respect of any subsequent portion of the half-year during which the premises may again become occupied.

(6) Subject to the provisions of subparagraphs (4) and (5)—

- (a) where the undertakers commence to give a supply of water to any premises, either for the first time or after a discontinuance of supply, the then current instalment of the water rate shall become payable on the day on which notice requiring the supply is given to the undertakers or, if no such notice is given, on the day when they commence to give the supply; and
- (b) the liability of a person to pay an instalment of a water rate shall not be affected by the fact that, before the end of the period in respect of which the instalment became payable by him, he or his tenant, as the case may be, removes from the premises in question, or causes the supply of water thereto to be discontinued.

(7) Nothing in this paragraph affects any right of the undertakers to make a minimum charge in respect of water rates.

Effect on water rates of alteration in assessment roll. Ch. 76:04.

23. (1) Where—

- (a) under section 12 or 15 of the Lands and Buildings Taxes Act, an amendment is made in the assessment roll for the time being in force, or in consequence of section 8 of that Act, an assessment roll comes into operation, or
- (b) under any written law relating to local authorities, an alteration or a new valuation is made in the house rate, the amendment or assessment roll or alteration or new valuation in the house rate respectively shall, for the purpose of calculating the amount due in respect of any water rate payable, have effect retrospectively as from the date when the amendment or assessment roll or alteration or new valuation in the house rate, respectively was made or came into operation and, notwithstanding anything in the last foregoing paragraph with respect to the equality of instalments of a water rate, any necessary adjustments shall be made in the then current instalments of the rates and any subsequent instalments thereof.

(2) If it is found that, by reason of the foregoing provisions, too much or too little has been paid in respect of any water rate, the difference shall be repaid or allowed or, as the case may be, shall be paid and may be recovered in the manner in which water rates are recoverable.

24. (1) The undertakers may allow discounts or rebates in consideration of prompt payment of water rates and charges, but such discounts or rebates shall be at the same rate under like circumstances to all persons and shall not in any case exceed five per cent.

Discount for prompt payment of water rates and charges.

(2) If, and so long as, the undertakers allow such discounts or rebates, notice of the effect of this paragraph shall be endorsed on every demand note for water rates and charges.

(3) This paragraph shall not apply in any case where a discount is payable under paragraph 21.

25. If it is shown to the satisfaction of a Justice of the Peace on sworn information in writing that a person is quitting, or is about to quit, premises to which the undertakers supply water and has failed to pay on demand an instalment of a water rate or charge payable by, and due from, him in respect of those premises, and intends to evade payment thereof by departing from the premises, the Justice may, in addition to issuing a summons for non-payment of the sum due, issue a warrant under his hand authorising the person named therein forthwith to enter the premises and to seize sufficient goods and chattels of the defaulter to meet the claim of the undertakers and to detain them until the cause is determined upon the return of the summons.

Recovery of rates and charges from persons leaving premises.

26. (1) Where the undertakers supply water by meter, the register of the meter shall be prima facie evidence of the quantity of water consumed.

Register of meter to be evidence.

(2) Any question arising between the undertakers and a consumer with respect to the quantity of water consumed may, on the application of either party, be determined by a Court of summary jurisdiction.

(3) If the meter on being tested is proved to register incorrectly to any degree exceeding five per cent—

(a) the meter shall be deemed to have registered incorrectly to that degree since the last occasion but one before the date of

- the test on which a reading of the index of the meter was taken by the undertakers, unless it is proved to have begun to register incorrectly on some later date; and
- (b) the amount of any refund to be made to, or of any extra payment to be made by, the consumer shall be paid or allowed by the undertakers or paid by the consumer, as the case may be, and in the case of an extra payment, shall be recoverable in the manner in which water rates are recoverable.

Power to repair supply pipes.

29. (1) If the undertakers have reason to think that some injury to or defect in a supply pipe which they are not under obligation to maintain is causing, or is likely to cause, waste of water or injury to person or property, they may execute such work as they think necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case without being requested to do so and, if any injury to or defect in the pipe is discovered, the expenses reasonably incurred by the undertakers in discovering it and in executing repairs shall be recoverable by them summarily as a civil debt from the owner of the premises supplied, but without prejudice to the rights and obligations, as between themselves, of the owner and occupier of the premises.

(2) Where several houses or other buildings in the occupation of different persons are supplied with water by one common supply pipe belonging to the owners or occupiers of the houses or buildings, the amount of any such expenses as aforesaid and any expenses reasonably incurred by the undertakers in the maintenance of that pipe may be recovered in manner aforesaid from the owners of those premises in such proportions as, in case of dispute, may be settled by the Court, but without prejudice to the rights and obligations, as between themselves, of the owners and occupiers of those premises respectively.

UNOFFICIAL VERSION

UPDATED TO DECEMBER 31ST 2011

(2) If any water fitting which any person is liable to maintain is in such a condition, or so constructed or adapted as aforesaid, the undertakers without prejudice to their right to institute proceedings under subparagraph (1), may require that person to carry out any necessary repairs or alterations, and, if he fails to do so within forty-eight hours, may themselves carry out the work and recover from him summarily as a civil debt the expenses reasonably incurred by them in so doing.

31. (1) Any owner or occupier of premises supplied with water by the undertakers who without their consent supplies any of that water to another person for use in other premises, or wilfully permits another person to take any of that water for use in other premises, is (without prejudice to the right of the undertakers to recover from such owner or occupier the value of the water so supplied or permitted to be taken) liable to a fine of one hundred and fifty dollars, except where the water is supplied to a person for the purpose of extinguishing a fire, or where such person is a person supplied with water by the undertakers but temporarily unable, through no default of his own, to obtain water.

Penalties for misuse of water.

(2) Any person who wrongfully takes, uses or diverts water from a reservoir, watercourse, conduit, pipe or other apparatus belonging to the undertakers, or from a pipe leading to or from any such reservoir, watercourse, conduit, pipe or other apparatus, or from a cistern or other receptacle containing water belonging to the undertakers or supplied by them for the use of a consumer of water from them, is liable to a fine of seventy-five dollars.

(3) Any person who, having from the undertakers a supply of water otherwise than by meter, uses any water so supplied to him for a purpose other than those for which he is entitled to use it is liable to a fine of thirty dollars, without prejudice to the right of the undertakers to recover from him the value of the water misused.

32. (1) Any person who fraudulently alters the index of any meter used by the undertakers for measuring the water supplied by them, or prevents any such meter from registering correctly the quantity of water supplied, or fraudulently abstracts or uses water of the undertakers, is, without prejudice to any other right or remedy of the undertakers, liable to a fine of seventy-five dollars, and the undertakers may do all such work as is necessary for securing the proper working of the meter, and may recover the expenses reasonably incurred by them in so doing from the offender summarily as a civil debt.

Penalty for fraudulent use of water.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph, if it is proved that a consumer has altered the index of a meter, it shall rest upon him to prove that he did not alter it fraudulently, and the existence of any artificial means under the control of a consumer for preventing a meter from registering correctly, or for enabling him fraudulently to abstract or use water, shall be evidence that he has fraudulently prevented the meter from registering correctly or, as the case may be, has fraudulently abstracted or used water.

Penalty for interference with valves and apparatus.

33. Any person who either—

- (a) wilfully and without the consent of the undertakers; or

(2) When an offence under this paragraph has been committed, then whether proceedings be taken against the offender in respect of his offence or not, the undertakers may recover from him summarily as a civil debt the amount of any damage sustained by them and the value of any water wasted, misused or improperly consumed.

Meters to be connected, or disconnected, by undertakers.

35. (1) A consumer who has not obtained the consent of the undertakers shall not connect or disconnect any meter by means of which water supplied by the undertakers is intended to be, or has been, measured for the purpose of the payment to be made to them, but, if he requires such a meter to be connected or disconnected, shall give to the undertakers not less than twenty-four hours' notice of his requirements and of the time when the work can be commenced and, thereupon, the undertakers shall carry out the necessary work and may recover from him summarily as a civil debt the expenses reasonably incurred by them in so doing.

(2) Any consumer who contravenes any of the provisions of this paragraph is liable to a fine of thirty dollars.

36. 2. (1) The Authority may lay a sewer—
- (a) in any street, subject, however, to the provisions of Part III of the Third Schedule; and
 - (b) with the consent of every owner and occupier of any land not forming part of a street and with the consent of the local authority of the district in which that land is situated and also of the highway authority concerned, if the sewer will be laid within two hundred and twenty feet of any highway, in, on or over any land, and may from time to time inspect, repair, alter or renew, or may at any time remove, any sewer laid down by them whether by virtue of this paragraph or otherwise.

(2) A consent required for the purposes of subparagraph (1) shall not be unreasonably withheld and any question whether such a consent is, or is not, unreasonably withheld shall be referred to and determined by the Minister.

(3) Where the Authority proposes in the exercise of its powers under this paragraph to lay a sewer which will cross or interfere with any watercourse or works vested in, or under the control of, a land drainage authority, it shall give notice of its proposals to that authority, and, if within twenty-eight days that authority serve on the Authority notice of objection to its proposals, the Authority shall not proceed with its proposals unless all objections so made are withdrawn, or the Minister after a local inquiry has approved the proposals, either with or without modification, except that this paragraph shall not apply in relation to a street sewer which the Authority proposes to lay in a bridge carrying a highway across such a watercourse as aforesaid.

(4) Where the Authority, in the exercise of its powers under this paragraph lay a sewer in, on or over any land not forming part of a street, or inspect, repair, alter, renew or remove a main laid in, on or over any such land, it shall from time to time pay compensation to every person interested in that land for any damage done to, or injurious affection of, that land by reason of the inspection, laying, repair, alteration, renewal or removal of the sewer.

PART II

Laying and Maintenance of Street Sewers, Collecting Sewers and House Sewers

4. (1) Subject to the provision of this paragraph, the Authority may require the provision of a separate house sewer for each house or other building connected with or to be connected with the collecting sewers.

Power of Authority to require separate house sewers.

(2) If, in the case of a house or other building already connected with a collecting sewer, and not having a separate house sewer connected to a street sewer, the Authority gives notice to the owner of the house or building requiring the provision of such a house sewer, the owner shall within three months lay so much of the required sewer and other works as will constitute a house sewer and is not required to be laid in a highway, and the Authority shall, with all reasonable despatch after he has done so, make all necessary connections.

(3) If an owner upon whom a notice has been served under subparagraph (2) fails to comply with the notice, the Authority may itself execute the work which he was required to execute.

(4) The expenses reasonably incurred by the Authority in executing the work which it is required by subparagraph (2) to execute, or which it is empowered by subparagraph (3) to execute, shall be repaid to it by the owner of the house or building and may be recovered by it from him summarily as a civil debt, but without prejudice to the rights and obligations, as between themselves, of the owner and the occupier of the house or building.

(5) For the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, two or more buildings in the same occupation and forming part of the same hereditament for rating purposes shall be treated as a single building.

(6) Where the owner of a group or block of houses is liable by law or undertakes in writing to pay the sewerage rates in respect of all those houses, then, so long as he punctually pays those rates and the house sewer of those houses is sufficient to meet the requirements thereof, the Authority shall not require the provision of separate house sewers for those houses.

(7) Without prejudice to subparagraph (6), where, on the coming into force of this paragraph, two or more houses were served by a single house sewer, the Authority shall not require the provision of separate house sewers for those houses until either—

- (a) the existing house sewer becomes so defective as to require renewal, or is no longer sufficient to meet the requirements of the houses; or
- (b) an instalment of the sewerage rate in respect of any of the houses remains unpaid after the end of the period for which it is due; or
- (c) the houses are, by structural alterations to one or more of them, converted into a larger number of houses.

Vesting of collecting sewers and repair of such sewers and of house sewers in highways.

5. (1) All collecting sewers, whether laid before or after the coming into force of this paragraph, shall vest in the Authority and the Authority shall at its own expense carry out any necessary works of maintenance, repair or renewal of such sewers and any work on its street sewers incidental thereto.

(2) The Authority shall also carry out any such necessary works as aforesaid in the case of so much of any house sewer as is laid in a highway, and may recover the expenses reasonably incurred by it in so doing summarily as a civil debt from the owners of the premises served by the house sewer, but without prejudice to the rights and obligations, as between themselves, of the owner and the occupier of the premises.

PART III

Sewerage Rates and Charges

Sewerage Rates.
[32 of 1969].

6. (1) The Authority may charge in respect of any sewerage facilities provided by it a sewerage rate, which shall be calculated at a rate to be prescribed—

- (a) in the case of a house or of any premises not used solely for business, trade or manufacturing purposes or for the exercise of functions by any public authority, on the annual value thereof; and
- (b) in the case of any other premises, on such proportion of the annual value thereof as may be prescribed or, if no proportion is prescribed, as may be determined by the Minister.

(2) Notwithstanding subparagraph (1), the Authority may in any case make in respect of the sewerage facilities provided by it such minimum charge it may prescribe, or if no minimum is prescribed, three dollars and sixty cents a year.

(3) For the purposes of this Part, where a house served by a collecting sewer is a house within the curtilage of a factory and that house is used solely for the domestic purposes of occupants, the house shall be deemed separate premises not forming part of the factory.

(4) For the purposes of this Part, the annual value of any premises shall be taken to be that value as appearing in the assessment roll in force on the first day of the period of twelve months covered by the rate, save that, if that value does not appear therein, or if the sewerage rate is chargeable on a part only of any hereditament entered therein, the annual value of the premises so served shall be taken to be such sum, or, as the case may be, such fairly apportioned part of the annual value of the whole hereditament, as, in default of agreement, may be determined by the Appeal Board.

(5) Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (3), where there is communication, otherwise than by a highway, between buildings or parts of buildings in the occupation of the same person, those buildings or parts of buildings shall, if the Authority so decides, be treated, for the purpose of charging sewerage rates, as one building having an annual value equal to the aggregate of their value. A person aggrieved by a decision of the Authority under this subparagraph may appeal to the Appeal Board.

7. (1) The Authority, in lieu of charging a sewerage rate, may agree with any person whose premises are or may be served with sewerage facilities to provide such service, on such terms and conditions as may be agreed.

Power to make agreed charges in lieu of sewerage rates.

(2) Charges payable under this paragraph shall be recoverable in the manner in which sewerage rates are recoverable.

8. (1) Where a house or other building has an annual value not exceeding five hundred dollars but is part of premises served with sewerage facilities the owner instead of the occupier shall, if the Authority so resolves, pay the sewerage rate.

Sewerage rates on certain houses may be demanded from the owners. [7 of 1978].

(2) An owner of premises to which a resolution of the Authority under this paragraph applies shall, if he pays the amount due by him in respect of sewerage rate before the expiration of one-half of the period in respect of which the rate or instalment of the rate is payable or before such later date as may be specified by the Authority, be entitled to an allowance calculated at a rate of five per cent.

9. (1) The Authority shall, in respect of every house served with sewerage facilities, make a sewerage rate by fixing, in respect of a period of twelve months commencing on the first day of January, the rate, by reference to which amounts due under the rate are to be calculated, and subject to the provisions of this paragraph, any such rate shall be payable in advance by equal quarterly instalments, or, if the Authority so resolves by equal half-yearly instalments.

Making and dates for payment of sewerage rates.

Ch. 39, No. 1.
(1950 Ed.).
21 of 1990.
